Mumbai:

Nisus Finance Service, a real estate focused fund, has exited its investment in Midcity Heights's residential project 'Ocean Heights' in the megapolis. The company had invested up to Rs 30 crore with MidCity Heights but secured an early exit returning back 1.23 times of the capital within 14 months, the company said in a statement.

"Our strategy of investing into late stage projects is paying rich dividends to investors," managing director Amit Goenka said. BEN PSK RSY
